REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

To the School Board of Hollis, Greeting:

I have the honor to submit herewith my fourth annual report as superintendent of your schools, and to this I have attached reports from your headmaster and from your supervisor of music.

School Plant.

During the past year your chemical laboratory has been suitably equipped, the heating of your central plant improved, the Kaustine toilets properly drained and ventilated, the grounds graded and concreted to turn the water. Your plants, whether central or suburban, are now in excellent condition, well equipped and suitable for the purpose. Only minor changes or repairs will have to be made for a period of years. Your central building has been well taken care of, has been clean and comfortable, and has been such a plant as Hollis would be expected to have and should have.

Teaching Force.

You employ but seven regular teachers. Your schools opened last September with but three teachers who had previously served the district. Though, on the whole, you have been quite fortunate in the selection of your new teachers this year, the factor of chance as well as judgment invariably enters when changes are made.

The teacher is the one predominating factor in determining the excellence of a school. Although it is true that a poorly heated or lighted room may be a menace to the health of the pupils, and the lack of equipment may be a handicap to the work of any teacher, it is equally true that a properly planned, heated, and equipped room, as important as are all these matters, is of no avail in securing results when presided over by an incompetent teacher. The excellent teacher has never been and never will be paid what her services are worth to the community. No community is rich enough to pay her in full. The poor teacher is always over paid, whatever her salary may be. It should be the policy of any school district to retain its best teachers by encouragement in every way, whether it be by criticism, pleasant living conditions, or social recognition. These matters, I find, cause as many teachers to look for other positions as does the wish for a larger salary.

Transportation.

The matter of transportation seems to be your most troublesome problem at the present time. The public should understand that being a town aided by state funds, the school board must expend all its school funds in accordance with the approved budget. The State Board does not approve of a budget which calls for funds for transporting children who live within two miles from the nearest school, and it makes its own schedule of prices for the conveyance of children living beyond that distance. If the school board wishes to proceed in any way in the matter of transportation not in accordance with the budget, it must find the funds for so doing from appropriations exceeding the $5.00 per $1,000 of equalized valuation. The public should bear this in mind and be reasonable in its demands.

It has been my observation that the public demands for transportation always become more exacting from year to year. If these demands are to be satisfied, funds must be voted at the district meeting for the purpose. School boards will furnish any kind of conveyance which the public demands and will find the funds for.

In General.

At the present time your schools are doing very good work. The attendance is good and the pupils have the appearance of being healthy, contented, and busy. Standardized tests show their work to be of good grade. Hollis has but little to complain of in its school facilities.

I am giving below some statistics gathered from the registers and from the General Statistics report. The per cent of attendance in both the high and the elementary schools, 95% and 93% respectively, are both high when compared with the averages given in the last state report, and the number of perfect attendance is large for the size of your school population.

I am frequently asked to compare the rate of wage paid teachers in the various towns of this union. For the school year of 1921-22 the average salary paid to elementary school teachers in the towns of this union, as given in the General Statistics report, is as follows, Litchfield, $900, Pelham, $872.50, Hudson, $838.80, Hollis, $814, Merrimack, $796.67.

Thanking the teachers for their co-operation and loyalty, the board for its consideration, and the community for many kindnesses, this report is,

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS DeWITT RECORD,
Superintendent of Schools, Union No. 27.

REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC.

To the Superintendent of Schools:

My work as supervisor of music in the Hollis School commenced on Thursday, April twentieth, nineteen twenty-two.

It was stipulated in the agreement that I should spend one half day per week in the High School building, teaching the required fundamentals of music to all grades from the first grade to the High School inclusive. Music had been a dormant subject in this school for a period unknown to me, previous to the introduction of my predecessor, Mrs. Nelson.

I found conditions as satisfactory as one could reasonably expect, but the constructive results of pedagogical expectations were too immature at this stage to be of much assistance in taking up the work of the High School classes especially the upper classes, as it is the result of my experience that it is a difficult matter to introduce into the curriculum of advanced high school pupils, a study, the associated fundamentals of which had not been at least outlined in the lower grades, especially in a subject such as music which is likely to be judged largely by mass performance. High School pupils expect that they should sing works of greater harmonic difficulties than that used in the lower grades, such as three and four part music, rather than unison or two part.

This was the problem in the Hollis High School, boys with changed and changing voices, compelled by physiological forces to sing bass, but not knowing the nomenclature of the bass clef, and in the girls' section a lack of past and accumulative experience in part singing, made chorus work rather hazardous. However, these difficulties were met, and smoothed over as well as I could by general pedagogical procedure, and musical compositions for Soprano, Alto, and Bass were prepared for use on Decoration Day and for Commencement, and I would consider the result reasonable in attainment.

The work of this year progressed without interruption until the Christmas Holidays. Since then, owing to weather conditions and the peculiar railway situation in Hollis, I have been unable to continue my work, but intend to resume duties this week, as per date of this report. I would state that this elasticity of duty performance has been granted me by the School Board, subject to my discretion, during the winter months.

I have been unusually fortunate in the support and co-operation of the entire personnel of the faculty in the Hollis School, a factor of which I am quite cognizant, and for which I am most grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN M. PRISKE,
Music Supervisor.

February First, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-three.

REPORT OF THE HEADMASTER.

To the Superintendent of Schools:

At your request, I submit the following report:—

September twelfth school opened with an enrollment of one hundred and fifty-six pupils. Ten of the grammar school graduates entered the High School. Of the class of 1922, two are attending college and two taking a business course.

Two substantial additions have been made to the laboratory equipment, a table for the chemical department, and class chairs for the pupils. The high school now has practically all the equipment and supplies needed for the chemistry work we are expected to perform in meeting "Standard Requirements."

Our high school is maintaining a "Classical Course," college preparatory, and a "General Course."

The approved program of the courses is as follows:

The prizes awarded at the Commencement, June 30, were, for the best poems, first prize, Lois Brown class of 1923, $2.50; second prize, Mary Szlosek class of 1924, $1.00; and for the best original story, Lois Brown class of 1923, $2.00.

Among the social activities of the year, we note the annual high party given last March, the reception to the seniors June 30, the senior play, "A Hallowe'en Party," and the basket ball games. The attendance of our towns people and friends, at these functions, is sufficient proof that they are interested in our social welfare.

The winter schedule, which provides for early closing in the afternoon, has been appreciated by those who come to us on the school teams.

I avail myself of this opportunity to express my appreciation of the cordial spirit of coöperation of the superintendent, and the constant willingness of the school board to do all in its power to assist me in my work.

Very respectfully submitted,

JENNIE WELTON,

Headmaster

Hollis, N. H., February 10, 1923.

REPORT OF DENTAL CLINIC.

HOLLIS, January 31, 1922.

This being the first report of the clinic, one wonders what may be done in the coming years. Following figures prove the fact of its success.

Seventy-eight per cent of the High School students and fifty-eight per cent of the children in the grammar grades had work done—a very high per cent in both cases. The fifty-eight per cent of the grammar grades is not low when one considers the fact that very little work was done in Grades I and II.
